MENACING AUSTRIA.

Massing of Troops for Russian Managavres Causes Apprehension.

MILAN, Sep. 8.—The Russian grand manceuvres this autumn will take place in the Governments of Kieff, Prodolice and Volhynia. Upward of 100,000 men will be massed together, and as these are to be drawn from the interior of Russia, to be drawn from the interior of Russia, there will be no diminution of the immense force of Russian troops already stationed near the Austrian frontier.

On the contrary, many of the troops engaged in the maneuvres will be added to the existing garrisons and serve to swell the vast body of men ready, at the briefest notice, to be precipitated on the Austrian empire. The Vienna Cabinet, it is stated, is fully alive to the situation and doing the best that can be done to and doing the best that can be done to counteract it.

There is an army of Austrian spies in Western Russia, and the War Office at Vienna is kept minutely informed as to every movement of the Russian troops.
